

National Institute of Bank Management
Pune, INDIA

Methodology

- The study for the course will be as follows:
 - On being accepted for the course a ID and password for log in to the on-line study platform would be issued
 - Candidate will start with the first module of the course and upon completion of the same move to the second, third and so on.
 - Completion of the module will be measured in terms of study of the material, taking quiz and quick tests, completing the assignments if any, and passing the end module MCQ test.
 - On completion of the on-line modules, candidate will have to attend the class room learning which will be on virtual or physical basis.
 - Class room learning sessions will be case study and discussion based on completion of which candidates will have to submit an assignment.
 - At the end there will be a one final/ comprehensive examination on all the modules covered in the course.

Methodology

